General Code of Conduct

All Cedar Grove & District Riding Club Members or persons are required to comply with the Cedar Grove & District Riding Club General Code of Conduct. CGDRC members must meet the following requirements in regard to their conduct and behaviour during an activity held or sanctioned by CGDRC and in any role held within CGDRC:

- Adhere to the requirements contained in the Members Handbook.
- Members riding at an event are expected to help our as a part of your club membership.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of others.
- Be fair, considerate and honest in all dealing with others.
- Be professional in, and accept responsibility for your actions.
- Make a commitment to providing quality service.
- As an affiliated club, be aware of, and maintain an uncompromising adhesion to Equestrian Australia standards, rules, regulations and policies that cover the equestrian disciplines the club offers to our members.
- Scrupulously avoid any conducting privileged information to gain a personal or commercial advantage.
- Operate within the rules of the sport including national and international guidelines which govern Equestrian Sport, the member associations and the affiliated clubs.
- Do not use your involvement with CGDRC to promote your own beliefs, behaviours or practices where these are inconsistent with those of Equestrian Australia.
- Demonstrate a high degree of individual responsibility especially when dealing with persons under the age of 18 years, as your words and actions are an example.
- Avoid unaccompanied and unobserved activities with persons under the age of 18 years, wherever possible.
- Refrain from any form of harassment of others.
- Refrain from any behaviour that may bring CGDRC in to disrepute.
- Provide a safe environment for the conduct of the activity.
- Show concern and caution towards others who may be sick or injured.
- Be a positive role model.
- Social media must be used to promote and benefit the club to the equestrian world and the general public.

I have had sufficient opportunity to read this General Code of Conduct, fully understand its terms and sign it freely and voluntarily.
